

Wedge Playability Categories Chart

 BURKE NIBLICK #9 IRON	-102 POINTS	FOR MALTBY 56° WEDGES Below -40 Points Player Classic Narrow Sole Widths ($\frac{1}{4}$" to $\frac{5}{8}$") Almost impossible to play for any modern golfer. Avoid playing wedges in this category.
 MALTBY 56° 56-8	-11 POINTS	-39 to -1 Point Classic Narrower to Normal Sole Widths ($\frac{11}{16}$" to $\frac{13}{16}$") Only for the highest golfer skill level. Best for tour pros, golf professionals and very low handicap amateurs. This category wedge can hit any special type shot if the golfer is capable.
 MALTBY 56° 56-12	1 POINTS	0 to 40 Points Conventional Normal Sole Widths ($\frac{3}{4}$" to $\frac{7}{8}$") Requires a very good skill level to be consistent. Usually best for golfers up to 14 handicap. Most common wedges used and sold today. Most golfers would benefit by moving up to the "Game Improvement" category.
 MALTBY 56° 1.25 U.C.	51 POINTS	41 to 80 Points Game Improvement Wider Sole Widths (1" to $1\frac{3}{8}$") Will help most golfers improve their wedge game when moving up from "Conventional" category. Especially for those golfer's inconsistent with their wedge play. All handicaps apply here. Improves sand shots, pitches & chipping.
 MALTBY 56° 1.62 U.C.	141 POINTS	81 to 150 Points Super Game Improvement Very Wide Sole Widths ($1\frac{7}{16}$" to $1\frac{3}{4}$") Will help golfers with poorer wedge play and especially those that hit the ball fat or thin when chipping and pitching the ball. Helps any golfer with sand trap problems. All handicaps apply here.
 MALTBY 56° 1.62 SAND SLIDER PRO	160 POINTS	151 to 200 Points Ultra Game Improvement Extremely Wide Sole Widths ($1\frac{7}{8}$" to $2\frac{1}{8}$") The absolute easiest to hit wedges. Very hard to hit the ball fat. For all golfers who experience frustration with their wedge play. The least amount of skill required to play wedge shots. These wedges are always played from a mostly square face position.
 MALTBY 56° SAND-SLIDER	177 POINTS	