

This is a unique dual purpose tool that is used for finishing ferrules to a high gloss finish as well as prepping shaft tips prior to installation. The system uses a synthetic lint free cloth strip soaked with acetone on which the ferrule is spun. Nylon roller bearings support the shaft during the process.

The lint free cloth strip can be replaced with an 80 grit sandpaper to prepare shafts, thin down ferrules, etc.

